Hope to see you there, the kids always have a good time!

MLS - Sherwood PTO Meeting

There will be a short PTO meeting during the movie tonight to discuss the progress of carnival planning. It shouldn't take too long, so please plan on bringing ideas and concerns you may have. All opinions are welcome!!

Early out today at 1:20 for teachers to attend School Improvement Meetings

UPCOMING PTO CARNIVAL STILL IN NEED OF VOLUNTEERS

Our upcoming PTO carnival is a great way for the PTO to raise money for the Sherwood school. Money raised is used for activities such as field trips and buying supplies for the classrooms. This carnival is also a wonderful opportunity for you in the community to become involved and show support for your local school. Anyone interested in helping out in any way is encouraged to call Heather Volk (chair of carnival) 459-2289 or Roxanne Ellingson (PTO president) 459-2256. Any help would be much appreciated. Just a few areas needing volunteers include set up, clean up, workers for games, concessions, bingo.

"Tracker" by Gary Paulson

Book report by Stephen Ellingson

(6th grader and son of Jarett and Roxanne Ellingson)

John Borne and his grandfather hunt together every deer season to have meat for the long winter. John's parents died when he was little, so he grew up on his grandparents' farm. This year is different, though. John's grandfather has cancer and is dying. John will have to hunt alone this year.

Before deer season, John was doing chores on the farm when he saw the doe. She stood for a few moments, then ran off. For some reason, John thought that deer was special. He couldn't stop thinking about the doe.

The first day of deer season came and John left his grandparents' farm to start hunting. While hunting, he came upon that same doe that he saw before. After tracking her for awhile, he found that he couldn't shoot her. She stood there for awhile, then again ran. John decided to follow her.

For two long days and a night, John trailed the deer. He lay his gun in the snow while tracking her. He didn't want to kill the doe. John was a little crazy from walking that distance, and he thought that if he touched her, he could somehow save his grandfather from dying.

He finally got his chance when the deer collapsed in the snow. He touched her, then too fell from exhaustion. The doe ran away after awhile. John started to go home, back to his grandparents' farm. On the way back, he picked up his gun.

When he finally got home, he told the story about touching the doe to his grandparents. John still knew that even if he touched the deer, he couldn't stop his grandfather from dying. John also knew, though, that death happened to everyone, even himself.
